INTRODUCTION

Isaac Hamill, widower, native of Hamill Island, Ireland, came to Canada in the year 1842. He was a weaver in Ireland and continued at his trade in Canada, living in a cottage on his son Samuel's farm, lot 20 on the 6th line, West Garafraxa.
Died 1875, aged 97.

Isaac Hamill's family and his brother James Hamill's family also came to Canada, and settled on farms in Grey and Wellington counties, at present their descendants are scattered across Canada, while some live in Scotland, South Africa and the United States of America.

This booklet is dedicated in loving memory to these sturdy pioneers, whose daring and perseverance have given us the ampler places of the New World in which to live.

Descendants of Isaac Hamill, Canada, and Isabella Byers, who died in Ireland in 1841.
